Dear Families,

On Tuesday we welcomed Robert Dare, from the diocese. Robert was impressed by how much has been done to develop our Catholic life and mission within the school, and could see how far we've come in our journey of improvement thus far. We know there's still plenty to be done, and we're already busy planning for how we're going to achieve those improvements.

Year 5 enjoyed the first of five sailing lessons yesterday. The children really seemed to love it, and the instructors at Seaview Yacht Club commented on the outstanding behaviour.

Next Friday, Year 6 will be hosting a raffle to raise funds towards their leavers 'do'. Tickets will be on sale Mon – Thurs after school, and are £2 a strip. The raffle will be draw on the Friday after school. There will also be some stalls with homemade goods on offer.

This year Sports Day will be Friday 12th July, from 9am – 1pm. Details in a letter to follow.

Have a lovely weekend.

Warm regards, Mrs Lucie Banks

Fantastic Mr Fox!

A huge well done to Edie, Isaac and Eliza for their achievements.

Perhaps your child is a champion gymnastic, a budding musician or a keen artist.

Don't forget to let us know if your child has earned a reward or achievement outside of school, and deserves a Fantastic Fox award.
