Yellow highlighted information shows where our 'Key Decisions' have been made about what to include in our PSHE/ RSE curriculum, and when to teach it.

Green high-lighted information shows additional sessions using the 'Beware of Lurking Trolls' The campaign is backed by the Safeguarding Children Partnerships in Portsmouth, Southampton, Isle of Wight and Hampshire and has been developed with support from schools, child and adolescent mental health services (CAMHS), the police, local authority children and education services, public health and library services.

Pink highlights show additional supplementary PSHE sessions.

Online safety and digital resilience and awareness is also taught through Internet Safety week, and referred to throughout the year.
